STATUTES INVOLVED.

Title 15, Pennsylvania Statutes.
Article VIII—Amendment of Articles.
§ 2852-801 Amendment of Articles Authorized.

A business corporation, in the manner hereinafter provided in this article, may from time to time amend its articles:

(1) To adopt a new name, subject to the restrictions heretofore provided in this act;

(2) To modify any provision thereof limiting its term of existence by increasing such term, or to remove such provision and provide for perpetual existence;

(3) To change, add to, or diminish its powers or purposes, or to set forth different or additional powers or purposes;

(4) To increase or diminish its authorized capital stock, or to reclassify the same by changing the number, par value, designations, preferences, or relative, participating, optional or other special rights of the shares, or the qualifications, limitations, or restrictions of such rights, or by changing shares with par value into shares without par value, or shares without par value into shares with par value, either with or without increasing or decreasing the number of shares; and in any and as many other respects as desired, provided that the articles, as so amended, would be authorized by this act as original articles of incorporation.
